THE GOOD NEWS: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Ascension of the Lord

In today's First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke gives the surprising news that there is more of the story to be told. The story did not end with the empty tomb, or with Jesus' appearances to the Apostles over the course of forty days. Jesus' saving work will have a liturgical consummation. He is the great high priest, and He has still to ascend to the heavenly Jerusalem, there to celebrate the feast in the true Holy of Holies. The truth of this feast shines forth from the Letter to the Hebrews, where we read of the great high priest's passing through the heavens, the sinless intercessor's sacrifice on our behalf (Heb 4:14-15). Indeed, His intercession will lead to the Holy Spirit's descent in fire upon the Church. Luke spells out that promise in the First Reading for the feast of the Ascension: "in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 1:5). The Ascension is the preliminary feast that directs the Church's attention forward to Pentecost. On that day, salvation will be complete; for salvation is not simply expiation for sins (that would be wonder enough), but it is something even greater than that. Expiation is itself a necessary precondition of our adoption as God's children. To live that divine life we must receive the Holy Spirit. To receive the Holy Spirit we must be purified through Baptism.

The Responsorial Psalm presents the Ascension in terms familiar from the worship of the Jerusalem Temple in the days of King Solomon: "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord" (Ps 47). The priest-king takes his place at the head of the people, ruling over the nations, establishing peace. The Epistle strikes a distinctively Paschal note. In the early Church, as today, Easter was the normal time for the baptism of adult converts. The sacrament was often called "illumination" or "enlightenment" because of the light that came with God's saving grace (Heb 10:32). Saint Paul, in his Letter to the Ephesians, speaks in terms of glory that leads to greater glories still, as Ascension leads to Pentecost: "May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened," he writes, as he looks to the divinization of the believers. Their "hope" is "his inheritance among the holy ones," the saints who have been adopted into God's family and now rule with Him at the Father's right hand. This is the "good news" the Apostles are commissioned to spread to the whole world, to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem at the Ascension. It's the good news we must spread today. ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Parish Office is closed on Monday, May 25th in observance of Memorial Day.

BEDS & DRESSERS - Do you have extra dressers or beds? St Vincent de Paul asking for donations, specifically of futons, beds and full or queen size mattresses. Please call Steve Ramirez-Palmer at (916) 372-8174 to make arrangements.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN PUBLIC MASS RESUMES – Our desire to return to Mass and receive the Eucharist is incredibly strong, but we ask that everyone remain patient and loving until we receive directives from the Bishop. In the meantime, the specific details of when public Mass will resume are still being planned, but here are a few things for everyone to be prepared for:

- ≈ Attendance will be limited.
- ≈ Social Distancing will be practiced.
- ≈ Liturgical changes will be in place.
- ≈ A general dispensation from the Sunday obligation will remain.
- ≈ There still will be a risk for anyone who attends a public Mass.
- ≈ There is value in livestreaming the Mass.

The Church must be sanitized before and after each Mass. Volunteers are needed, hand sanitizers, cleaning supplies and protection materials need to be purchased. If we all work together, we can ease back into this and continue to incrementally add more people and options. Call the Parish Office if you would like to help.
