A YOKE FOR THE CHILDLIKE:

Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus is portrayed in today's Gospel as a new and greater Moses. Moses, the meekest man on earth (Num 12:3), was God's friend (Ex 34:12, 17). Only he knew God "face to face" (Deut 34:10). And Moses gave Israel the yoke of the Law, through which God first revealed Himself and how we are to live (Jer 2:20; 5:5).

Jesus too is meek and humble. But He is more than God's friend. He is the Son who alone knows the Father. He is more also than a law-giver, presenting Himself today as the yoke of a new Law, and as the revealed Wisdom of God. As Wisdom, Jesus was present before creation as the firstborn of God, the Father and Lord of heaven and earth (Pro 8:22; Wis 9:9). And He gives knowledge of the holy things of the kingdom of God (Wis 10:10). In the gracious will of the Father, Jesus reveals these things only to the "childlike" those who humble themselves before Him as little children (Sir 2:17).

These alone can recognize and receive Jesus as the just savior and meek king promised to daughter Zion, Israel, in today's First Reading. We too are called to childlike faith in the Father's goodness, as sons and daughters of the new kingdom, the Church. We are to live by the Spirit we received in Baptism (Gal 5:16), putting to death our old ways of thinking and acting, as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle. Our "yoke" is to be His new law of love (Jn 13:34), by which we enter into the "rest" of His kingdom. As we sing in today's Psalm, we joyously await the day when we will praise His name forever in the kingdom that lasts for all ages. This is the sabbath rest promised by Jesus first anticipated by Moses (Ex 20:8-11), but which still awaits the people of God (Heb 4:9).

Deacon's Desk

Message from Deacon David Campbell, June 30, 2020

To the Our Lady of Grace Parish Family,

June 30th marked the second anniversary of my ordination to the Permanent Diaconate. My wife Carol kept a collection of notes, cards, letters, programs, bulletins, and prayers from that day for me to look at on the anniversary.

At the conclusion of the ordination Mass, Bishop Soto told the new deacons, "Each of you, my brother deacons, has responded to a personal call of the Lord Jesus. He has called you with a brother's affection. With a shepherd's care, Jesus has brought you to this altar of charity so that your diaconal charity will only have one source: the water and blood that flow from his Sacred Heart."

I remain humbled by the continued encouragement and support given by our Parish Family – Father Mathew and all of you – throughout my formation and over the past two years. These two exciting years were filled with opportunities to serve at the altar, preach the gospel, and offer service to others. What a privilege it has been to conduct baptisms, witness marriages, offer blessings and serve in such varied ways!

I look forward to returning to full and active ministry as soon as the Bishop lifts the Covid-19 restrictions. Meanwhile, Carol and I thank you for all you have done for us, and we pray that God will bless each of you and strengthen you in your faith.

Sharing in the love of Christ,

Deacon Dave
