LOVE, THE MEASURE; GRACE, OUR STRENGTH

Today's First Reading focuses on God's eternal plan for everyone, which existed even prior to each one's conception. Our mission, should we choose to accept it, is to proclaim the Good News (Jeremiah's role and Jesus' role). The challenge of the mission is to live a good life and do what is right. In so doing, we will face opposition. Since this is God's plan for us, we are encouraged; for it is His will, He has called us, and He, therefore, will help us to proclaim the truth with our lives. God will accompany us and give us the courage to live our Christian calling. As in the First Reading, the Responsorial continues the theme of being called to proclaim God's justice, in word and deed. We depend on God's strength to accomplish His will; it is why He created us. God is our rock, our fortress, our refuge in difficulty. In the Second Reading, St Paul gives us the most important criterion for using the gifts of the Holy Spirit, i.e., love. Love should be the measure of all we do. St Paul's hymn of love can help us keep life in perspective and balance. It can also serve as an examination of conscience, helping us determine whether our actions and attitudes are really based on true, unselfish love. The Gospel shows us how difficult it can be to spread the Good News, since not everyone sees it as good. Even Jesus is rejected in His own home town of Nazareth. He came to give consolation, yet the people chose to reject Him. In order to accept and live the Good News we must convert, be vulnerable and recognize that we are no better than anyone else. It's a call to humility. Only when we admit that we need God's help, can we open our hearts to the healing He offers. (CBCo)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SYNOD — Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission."

If you have been listening to the announcements at our most recent Masses, in accordance with Papal mandate and call for worldwide Synod will be hosting a listening sessions intended to give our parish community an avenue to provide feedback and input on our parish that will be provided to Bishop Jamie Soto and eventually compiled with input from all parishes and Dioceses to the Bishops' Synod in Rome.

Our parish will be hosting six opportunities for you to participate in these listening sessions. Each session is planned to be 2 hours, with a limit of 10 participants each, and will be offered at various dates, times, and venues to better meet your availability. Please register using the EventBrite App on the parish website: westsacolg.org
