RECOGNIZING GOD'S HOLINESS & SERVING

The First Reading is about Isaiah's vision of God. Isaiah was in the temple when he experienced the holiness of God. In Hebrew there is no comparative or superlative degree of expression, so a word had to be repeated two or three times to convey a greater degree. To indicate the incredible holiness of God, scripture says "holy, holy, holy", i.e. God is the "holiest" of all, the most holy. Like Isaiah, when we encounter the holy, we realize how limited and broken we are. We are not terrified, but rather, in awe. God, who cleanses us of our sin, also gives us the courage to do what we cannot achieve on our own. The Responsorial Psalm also celebrates God's tremendous holiness. His greatness and glory is beyond our comprehension. Our best response as human, finite beings when we encounter the Divine and Infinite, is to praise God's glory. May we be filled to overflowing with joy, gratitude, and wonder at this realization. The Gospel continues the theme of being called to ministry through humble recognition of God's awesome holiness. St Peter fished all night and caught nothing. Jesus used Peter's boat as a platform to preach to the crowd. He tells Peter to toss out his nets into the warmer morning water; a strange request since with the heat of the day the fish go down lower to cooler waters. Peter reacts with great fear to the tremendous haul, recognizing that something very holy was happening. He knew he didn't deserve to be in Jesus' presence. But, like Isaiah and St Paul, we are called to serve not because we deserve it, but because God wills to work in us and through us. (CBCo)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SYNOD — Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission."

If you have been listening to the announcements at our most recent Masses, in accordance with Papal mandate and call for worldwide Synod will be hosting a listening sessions intended to give our parish community an avenue to provide feedback and input on our parish that will be provided to Bishop Jamie Soto and eventually compiled with input from all parishes and Dioceses to the Bishops' Synod in Rome.

Our parish will be hosting six opportunities for you to participate in these listening sessions. Each session is planned to be 2 hours, with a limit of 10 participants each, and will be offered at various dates, times, and venues to better meet your availability. Please register using the EventBrite App on the parish website: westsacolg.org

It is with great excitement that Our Lady of Grace extends it's congratulations to OLG's Pack 49 Cub Scouts Kekoa Griffith, Maverick Henderson and Jackson Morris for receiving their Light of Christ award. This award program was developed by the National Catholic Committee on Scouting and the Vatican. In order to receive this award, each child must complete a booklet, alongside their parents, filled with activities revolving around Catholicism. The goal of this activity is to strengthen their personal relationship with Jesus. If you see any of these Scouts, please extend congratulations to them on a job well done!

A STEWARD MAKES GOD'S LOVE VISIBLE BY IMITATING JESUS.
