KINGDOM OF PRIESTS

Scott Hahn Reflects on the
11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
(stpaulcenter.com)

The words God speaks to Israel in today's First Reading are intended for us as well. The Church is the fulfillment of God's covenant promises to Israel—a kingdom of priests and a holy nation (see Deuteronomy 26:19; Isaiah 62:12). In the Church, we have been gathered as the new "Israel of God" (see Galatians 6:16). He has made us His own people, the flock He tends, as we sing in today's Psalm. Moses was Israel's first shepherd (see Exodus 3:1). With the Promised Land in view, he prayed that God would raise up a successor so that God's people would not be left as sheep without a shepherd (see Numbers 27:17). These same words are used in today's Gospel to describe Jesus' pity for the crowds, who are "troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." Israel's shepherds—the Pharisees and scribes—had abandoned and misled the people through their hypocrisy and spiritual blindness (see Matthew 23:1-36; Jeremiah 50:6). But God had long before promised that He Himself would come and save His sheep—searching over the whole earth where they had been scattered "for lack of a shepherd" (see Ezekiel 34:1-24). Jesus is the new Moses and new David promised by the prophets, a divine shepherd-king sent to restore God's priestly kingdom (see John 10:11). As Moses commissioned Joshua as his successor, so we see Jesus today giving the Twelve His powers and authority (see Matthew 9:35; 10:1). In God's plan, they are to seek out the lost sheep of Israel first and then bring all nations into the fold (see Acts 13:46; Romans 1:16).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME FR. JAMES NARITHOOKIL to OLG — Fr. James was born in Elikulam, in the Catholic diocese of Pala, Kerala State, India. He is the third son of the 11 children of Mathew and Annamma. The Narithookil family traces its origin to an ancient family of St. Thomas Christians of Syro-Malabar Catholic Rite. St. Thomas, one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus, came to Kerala, India in 52 AD and suffered martyrdom at Mylapore, India, in 72 AD, after establishing an apostolic church (St. Thomas Christians) in south India.

Fr. James was installed as pastor of St. Mary Parish by Bishop Jaime Soto in September 2008, and served there until his retirement in 2018. Thank you, Fr. James, for covering for Fr. Mathew while he's away on vacation.

HELP US CELEBRATE OLG's BIG BIRTHDAY – 75 Years! In October of this year we begin a year-long celebration of the founding of our Parish in 1948. The committee preparing for this opening event invites and encourages your participation. If you have been a parishioner here for some time, and have some stories to tell about you or your families experiences here in our OLG community, please share them with us – funny stories, inspiring stories, OLG school stories, etc. We would love to hear them. You may write them and send them by email to girardwest@gmail.com or, if you prefer pen and ink, just drop them in the suggestion/comments box in the vestibule of the church. The other thing we would love to have is pictures. If you choose to give us originals you would like returned, just put an address label on the back. Were you married at OLG; children baptized here or have pictures of other special event photos from the church or school? Let's all share our stories about being the family of Our Lady of Grace Parish and School. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact: Carolyn Tagupa at 916 616-7361 or Maureen Girard at 916 754-606
