WISDOM AND RICHES

Scott Hahn reflects on the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The rich young man in today's Gospel wants to know what we all want to know how to live in this life so that we might live forever in the world to come.

The Wisdom of God is not precepts, but a person—Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Wisdom whose Spirit was granted to Solomon in today's First Reading.

Nothing is concealed from His gaze, as we hear in the Epistle. In His fiery eyes, the thoughts of our hearts are exposed, and each of us must render an account of our lives (see Revelation 1:14).

Let us pray for the wisdom to enter into the kingdom of God. With the Psalmist, let us ask Him, "Teach us." (stpaulcenter.com)

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word #113

Wisdom 7:7-11 I deemed riches nothing in comparison to wisdom. Psalm 90 "Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!" Hebrews 4:12-13 The word of God discerns reflections and thoughts of the heart. Mark 10:17-30 Sell what you have, and follow me.

Jesus issues a difficult challenge to us today. In order to inherit life, we need to do more than just observe all the commandments. Much more. So much more that the potential disciple who asked him what he must do to inherit life turned on his heel and walked away, crestfallen.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

These gifts of bread and wine will soon be transformed into the lifegiving body and blood of Christ. As we offer this great prayer of thanksgiving, let us pray that we too will be transformed and become Christ for the world.

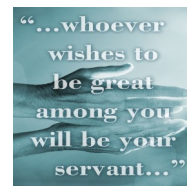

Question of the Week

Would my face fall if I were to be the person in the Gospel with many possessions? What can I do to follow Jesus' command?
