ALL IN

A student learns from their teacher and then goes out and lives their own life using what they have learned. A disciple seeks to emulate their master, living their life in imitation of their master as much as possible.

Jesus didn't come to do things halfway. Fully God and fully man, he experiences all of our life. He cries at the death of loved ones. He offers love and tenderness to those who reject him.

Likewise the widow. No one would blame her for giving less. After all, she is a widow. She has no one to take care of her and provide for her.

Are we all-in? When we give, do we give from our excess or from our need? Is our gift to God from our first fruits or our leftovers? It isn't just money!

People used to sanctify their day by stopping when they heard the Church bells to pray and reconnect with God. In today's world, the Church bells have been drowned out by all the other sounds of modern society.

Dear Lord, help me to be like the widow. Help me to be all-in. Let all that I do bring glory to you and reflect your love back into the world.

Welcome to OUR LADY OF GRACE Catholic Church

What Does Love Cost?

Monday of this week is Veterans' Day—a day to honor the generous service of our men and women in uniform who have made personal sacrifices to secure and sustain our cherished freedoms here and abroad.

Our culture wants us to believe that freedom means being able to do whatever we want, whenever we want, and as much as we want, free from judgments or limitations imposed by any person, institution, or government policy.

That is not a bad thing. It helps us to absorb Jesus' parable about the widow who gave her last two coins. Like her, our greatest freedom is found when we give of ourselves abundantly for the benefit of others.

For most of us, our home life is the setting in which we learn to live and give as Jesus did. There is no amount of wealth that is required to make a loving sacrifice for others.

"Marriage based on exclusive and definitive love becomes the icon of the relationship between God and his people and vice versa. God's way of loving becomes the measure of human love." (Pope Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est, II)
