True Witness, True Grit

The First Reading, known as Jeremiah's confessions, expresses a profound feeling of despair. It tells of betrayal by his friends, whom he intended to help, but they mistook his words for a threat and used them as an excuse to attack him, throwing his love for them in his face. He did everything the Lord requested, but when these difficulties came, the Lord seemed unavailable. Despite this setback, Jeremiah could not stop proclaiming God's word, even after trying to keep silent, so much did God's word burn within him. Ultimately, the prophet had no one to turn to except the Lord, in whom he now renewed his trust. u Like the First Reading, the Responsorial is a lamentation of suffering and disaster that has befallen the psalmist due to his fidelity to the Lord. He appeals for help, reminding the Lord of His help in the past, beseeching His continued beneficence, and reminding Him that He is the source of all kindness and mercy. Characteristic of all lamentation psalms, he ends with a thanksgiving for what he is sure will be God's quick delivery from these present difficulties. u In the Second Reading we see how Love conquers hate; Life conquers death. Adam's (our) sin and spiritual death were vanquished by Jesus' death on cross. Jesus' sacrifice on the cross effected life. The beneficent power of the second Adam (Jesus), completely overpowers the destruction of the first Adam's sin. Jesus brought us back to life by His death on the cross. u Today's Gospel is one of encouragement in the face of the opposition we will encounter when speaking the truth and trying to live our Christian values. Our strength and consolation should come from knowing that at the final judgment, Jesus will testify to our devotion before the Father. (Synopsis ex Handbook for Lectors & Proclaimers of the Word)

Welcome to OUR LADY OF GRACE Catholic

With gratitude to God and trust in His providence, Fr. Mathew is pleased to announce that Bishop Jaime Soto has appointed Reverend Father Davy Kavungal CMI as the new pastor of our Lady of Grace parish.

Please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide and strengthen Father Davy as he shepherds our parish community and school and that together we may continue to grow in faith, hope, and love.

May God bless our parish and our new pastor.

"I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding." (Jeremiah 3:15)

Happy Father's Day

Today we celebrate and give thanks for all the men who have nurtured, guided, protected, and loved others with a father's heart.

Thank you for your love, guidance, sacrifice, and faithful presence in the lives of others. May God bless you today and always.

Happy

Father's Day

Whether your child is continuing their faith journey or joining us for the first time, we look forward to accompanying them as they grow closer to Christ.

We can't wait to welcome everyone back this fall! Be sure to register early and join us for a joyful and faith-filled year ahead.
