Mass at OLG School

Fr. Davy is delighted to announce that, beginning on October 11, Holy Mass will be celebrated at 5:00 p.m. on the second Sunday of every month in the OLG School Hall.

This Mass will provide a convenient opportunity for families living near the school, as well as for those who are unable to attend the morning Masses.

We hope to continue this monthly celebration as long as we have at least 50 people in attendance. We warmly encourage parishioners to support this new initiative, inform your friends and join us for Mass at the school.

Children's Faith Formation (CFF)

Children's Faith Formation registration is now open for the fall! We welcome all families to join us for a new year of growing in faith together. Whether your child is continuing their faith journey or joining us for the first time, we look forward to helping them grow closer to Christ and build friendships within our parish community.

Classes start on Tuesday, September 29.

Reflection from Fr Kavungal Davy, CMI

From Fr Davy's Desk:

The readings of the twenty fifth Sunday inspire us to remember God's generosity and unlimited love to all.

The parable of the land owner and workers in the vineyard describes a group of people who are all equals.

This is a wonderful parable. But it is also a very subversive one: it made its hearers furious. It is, however, open to possible misunderstanding. But it maddens and insults the hard worker. What's the point in trying to play one's full part, if at the end of the day all are treated in the same way? Why slog your guts out all day long, if you can amble along at the eleventh hour and collect the same wages for one hour's work? Those who started to work at the eleventh hour genuinely wanted to work. It was just that nobody had hired them. Now everybody knew who Jesus was talking about in the parable. The eleventh-hour people were the sinners and the Gentiles. Those who had been working all day long were the Jews. The vineyard was the Kingdom of God. Jesus was saying God offers the Kingdom to sinners and Gentiles on equal terms with the Jews. Naturally the Jews objected vigorously. They didn't think it was fair. They thought they deserved preferential treatment. We must not limit God. We must not imagine that he is narrow-minded. 'My thoughts are not your thoughts, my ways are not your ways', says God. It is not the length of the service we have given that matters but the amount of love and sincerity we have shown. As Christians, let us express our love, mercy and generosity to all without any discrimination. Let us give up partiality, anger and resentment. St Thomas Aquinas described envy as "sorrow at another's good fortune." It only eats away at us and destroys relationships.
