Welcome to OUR LADY OF GRACE Church

From Fr Davy's Desk

This week, we celebrate the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, which remind us of our call to holiness and our bond with those who have gone before us. The saints inspire us to strive for the same holiness to which God calls each of us. As the Second Vatican Council teaches, "All the faithful of Christ, whatever their rank or status, are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity." Holiness is not reserved for a select few; it is a vocation entrusted to every Christian.

Every year, during the month of November, we remember our beloved departed. It is a special time to recall our parents, children, siblings, relatives, and friends who have gone before us, sharing their lives, love, and blessings with us in countless ways. Let us honor their memory by visiting their final resting places and offering prayers daily and Mass on the anniversaries of their deaths or on other convenient date. Though they are no longer physically present among us, the love and memories they have left behind continue to enrich our lives.

This Sunday's Gospel, the Beatitudes, reminds us that our present sorrows and sufferings can be transformed into lasting joy and eternal blessings. The saints lived with this hope, looking beyond their daily struggles toward the promise of eternal life, peace, and happiness with God. We, too, are called to follow their example, trusting in God's grace and strengthening our spiritual lives through prayer, spiritual practices, and the celebration of the Sacraments.

As we prepare for the elections to the United States Congress, let us remember our nation in prayer. We face many challenges, both nationally and internationally, and we need faithful, wise, and exemplary leaders who will uphold the founding ideals of our nation and guide us with integrity, justice, and compassion. Let us pray for a just and peaceful election and for leaders who will work for the common good of all.

May the saints inspire us to live lives of holiness, may our prayers bring comfort and hope to our departed loved ones, and may God bless our nation with peace, justice, and wise leadership.
